LAXATIVE
BUTTERMILK-BRAN

"Hot weather and a natural laxative." This is a combination, pretty near a necessity in a warm climate. Buttermilk, combined with bran in bread form, will surprise you as a laxative.

The mild action of this bread is really wonderful. Eat it with your meals. It acts as a tonic and aid to digestion. Just try a loaf today.

CIRCLE TO ATTEND FUNERAL
Members of Phoenix Grove No. 1, Woodmen Circle, will meet at 3:30 Sunday afternoon at the hall to attend the funeral of our late sovereign, Annie H. Dennis, which will be held at the Merriman & Hayt undertaking parlors.

Y. W. C. A. OUTDOOR SOCIAL Reserve Thursday, May 28, is the advance notice of the recreation committee, to the girls of the Y. W.
C. A. and their friends. "It will be an outdoor affair in Eastlake park," said Mrs. Tafel, chairman of the committee, but that's enough now.
Detailed announcement will be made later. Better underline the date and the a string around your finger for the plans sound interesting.

GIFT TO LOCAL CHURCHES

Through the generosity of Eugene Redewill each church in Phoenix and valley will receive 20 per cent of all tickets sold to their members on Monday the 18th inst. for the Bispham concert, which takes place at the Elks' on the 26th. This per cent represents Mr. Redewill's share of the profit on each ticket sold, and judging from the interest now taken in this great attraction, there will be quite a substantial sum handed back to the various churches of the city.

FIRST CLOSING RECITAL

The coming Tuesday evening, May 12, Mrs. Shirley Christy, of the Arizona School of Music, will present William Orth, pupil of Claude Gotthelf, head of the piano department, in recital assisted by Helena Munn Rede-will, pupil of William Conrad Mills, director of the vocal department.
Mr. Orth studied with Mr. Gotthelf in Sioux Falls, South Dakota, his home, and has spent the year in Phoenix in order to keep up his studies under him. As he has appeared successfully on various occasions at the school the coming recital is looked forward to with much interest. He will play compositions by Mozart, Bach, Chopin, Liszt, etc., by Josef and Liebling. Mrs.
Redewill will be heard in a group of French songs and in an aria from Joshua by Handel. This is the first of the closing series of eight recitals to be given at the school the coming two weeks. The public is cordially invited to attend.

THE EASTERN STAR—The members of the order of the Eastern Star are requested to meet at their lodge room this afternoon at 3 o'clock sharp.

HAYDEN JUNCTION POSTMAS-TER—Joe G. Bouchester, postmaster at Hayden Junction and storekeeper also at that place, came to Phoenix on a business visit yesterday.

HOME FROM STANFORD U.— James S. Higley of this city arrived home yesterday from Palo Alto, Calif., where he has been attending Leland Stanford University for the past year.

HERZBERG IS BACK—Adolph Herzberg, of the well known local dry goods house, has returned from Los Angeles where he went to be present at the wedding of his brother, Nathan Herzberg, formerly of Phoenix, who was wedded to Miss Myrtle Lyppman of El Centro.

A POSSIBLE CANDIDATE—Many friends including many lawyers of this and other towns in the county are urging Attorney P. H. Hayes to become a candidate for the office of superior judge at the election next November. Mr. Hayes has not yet signified an intention to enter the race, but it is believed that he will do so.

DROPPED A RUG—A man driving a wagon at Fourth avenue and Adams street yesterday afternoon dropped a new 5x9 rug in the street. Before another man, who saw the rug drop, could reach the street the wagon was out of reach. The rug has been left at the police station where the owner may recover his property.

FUNERAL OF MRS. DENNIS—Mrs. Annie Dennis, who died Friday evening, will be buried this afternoon by the Order of the Eastern Star. The funeral will take place at 3:30. Ladies of the Eastern Star are asked to meet at the Masonic hall a half hour earlier, so as to proceed to the parlors of Merriman & Hayt for the ceremony.

WIFE JOINS HIM HERE—Jack Tebbetts of the Capital Auto Supply House feels a little more at home in Phoenix is a place to stay in forever since the arrival of Mrs. Tebbetts yesterday from San Francisco.
Mrs. Tebbetts is taken with the growing city also and enters the housekeeping duties with a great deal of anticipation of a delightful time.

BURTIS LOOSES AUTO—While he was in the First Presbyterian church enjoying an unusually fine musical program by the pupils of Mrs. Arthur Gibbons Hulet last evening, D. H. Burtis' Overland automobile was stolen, probably by Joy riders who will return it later. Anyway when Mr. Burtis came out the car was not there and was not found last night. The number on it is 259.

WHERE ARE THOSE KEYS?

Somewhere in the vicinity of the city hall plaza a bunch of keys were lost on Friday. There were seven or eight of them on a ring to which was attached a belt hook. They couldn't possibly be of any use except to the owner. There are two small keys, a Yale key or two and a piano key. Will the finder please return them to The Republican for Simpson?

THE NEALIS ANNEX—Peter Nealis, who conducts a thriving confectionery at 209 West Washington street, has decided to branch out.
He has secured the store room at 35 North First avenue and will conduct there a modern refreshment parlor. He will carry an up-to-date line of candies, cigars and ice cream.
He has installed a handsome soda fountain and altogether has one of the best equipped and most modern of the smaller refreshment establishments.

DESTROYED BY FIRE—The fire department was called out this morning at 12:30 to assist in fighting a fire at the house formerly occupied by Bertha McDorman on the Buckeye road. The house, however, is outside the city limits. The alarm was telephoned into the station but just as the number was rung in from the telephone office to box 44, somebody seeing the blaze pulled box 45, with the result that part of the apparatus went one way and part of it another.

DEATH OF MRS. DENNIS—Mrs. J.
M. Dennis, wife of Mrs. Dennis, formerly of Maine, Coconino county, for many years one of the best known lumbermen in the Southwest, died at her residence the Ivon, on Friday night. Beside her husband Mrs. Dennis is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Jeffries, of Williams and her grand daughter Miss Anna Hunter who resided with her grandparents. The funeral will take place at the parlors of Merriman & Hayt at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.
The Episcopal service will be read by Dean Scarlett of Trinity Pro-Cathedral.
The services of the Eastern Star of which Mrs. Dennis was a member will also be conducted. The ladies of the Woodman's Circle will attend the funeral in a body. Relatives will leave with the body this evening for Williams where interment will be made either on Tuesday or Wednesday.

OUT SERENADING—Members of the Phoenix Philharmonic orchestra quietly walked out to the residence of Dr. Francis H. Redewill last evening and proceeded to wake him up with sweet strains of music. The doctor was so overcome with the compliment that he invited the whole bunch into the house and fed them on sweet pickles and such. He then decided to give something of a novelty musical number this evening when the First Regiment band plays at the Ford. The bass, violin and trio, will come down off the porch and mingle with the populace across the street and there put on a trio number in their best fashion.

One day a spasm to the effect that feel off the corrupt carcass of the the lie is nailed.

The next day we find that the that Geo. U. Young is flirting with poor old Hubbell, the poor deluded son who is still holding on to the caudal appendage of the defunct republican beast, hoping that through some miracle a resurrection may take

The facts are that Geo. U. Young
